We bumped into Kim Yong in Seoul!

Refreshed and energized after a good night's sleep in a cosy hotel room, we headed to the most frequently visited Lotte World on our second day

- 5 in Seoul. We saw a sea of people 'occupying' the amusement park just as we hopped off our coach. To race against time, my brother and I fought our way through the crowds to Magic Island, where
- our thrill-packed journey began. We spent the whole day trying breathtaking rides while my parents went hunting for souvenirs in the shopping malls.

The Kimchi DIY workshop on the third day was tailor-made for ladies. My dad shot a video of my brother and I wearing masks, making our

We spent our last night visiting Arirang, owned by Kim Yong, the most celebrated K-pop artist. Seated at a table, I saw a familiar face smiling at me. Oh, my God! It's him! What captivated me for the rest of the night was not the food. I don't even remember what I had that evening!

A. Countable nouns

Useful Tip

- 1. A countable noun refers to something which can be counted. It has both a singular and a plural form.
  - e.g. I bought two newspapers, The Moon and The Orange Daily.
- 2. We often use numbers or the article a or an before countable nouns.
  - e.g. I ate three apples today. There is a dog in the garden.
- 3. We can make uncountable nouns countable. bread  $\rightarrow$  a piece of bread; water  $\rightarrow$  a glass of water; rain  $\rightarrow$  a drop of rain; sugar  $\rightarrow$  a bowl of sugar
