A Jack is writing a diary entry. Read his diary entry.

Sunday 23rd November

Sunny

It was James' birthday today.

In the morning I drew a birthday card for him. In the afternoon I went to James' home for his birthday party. I gave James the birthday card. Carol gave him a belt and Leo gave him a wallet. He liked them all. Then we sang a birthday song to James and ate the birthday cake.

What a happy day!

B Do you know how to write a diary entry? We write down what happened today in a diary entry.
