

Test 1

Name: _____ ()

Class: _____

Date: _____

Time Allowed:
45 minutes

Part	Assessment Focus	Marks
A	▶ Adverbs & adverb phrases	/ 5
B	▶ Similes	/ 14
C	▶ Tenses: simple present, present perfect, simple past, simple future ▶ 'If' conditional sentences ▶ Gerunds & infinitives	/ 10
D	▶ Vocabulary: opposite action verbs	/ 10
E	▶ Reading: story	/ 12
F	▶ Reading: blog entry	/ 10
G	▶ Vocabulary: adjectives describing characters	/ 18
H	▶ Reporting verbs	/ 5
I	▶ Proofreading	/ 16

Total Marks:

100

A Doris is talking to her mum at home after school. Finish the conversation with the given words. You may use each word once only. (5 marks @1 mark)

then at last however suddenly after that

Mum: Oh dear! How come all of your clothes are wet?

Doris: I walked back home with Joe after school. (1) _____, it rained heavily so we started to run in the street. Joe and I did not have an umbrella so all of our clothes got wet.
 (2) _____, we wanted to find a shelter from the rain. (3) _____, there were not any buildings nearby. (4) _____, Joe suggested that we could lift up our school bags to cover our heads in the rain. (5) _____, we came across our neighbour Mrs Lee. It was so kind of her to lend us her umbrella.

Mum: You're so lucky! Remember to return the umbrella to Mrs Lee.

Doris: Certainly!

B Doris is doing an English exercise about similes. Help her finish the exercise. Fill in the blanks with the given phrases. You may use each phrase once only. (14 marks @2 marks) soft like as strong as sweet like as wise as white like as fierce as as hard-working as

1. Timothy broke an expensive vase at home. His mother scolded him angrily. She was _____ a tiger.
2. Anna made a candy cake for her friend's birthday. It was _____ honey.
3. Carson saw Mrs Wong's newborn baby. The baby's skin was _____ cotton.
4. Arthur can carry heavy bags. He is _____ an ox.
5. Bella is not feeling well. Her face is _____ snow.
6. Mr Chan knows a lot of things and he always helps his students solve their problems. He is _____ an owl.
7. Mr Wong always works long hours at work. He is _____ an ant.

C Doris is reading a story. Finish the story with the correct form of the given verbs. (10 marks @1 mark)

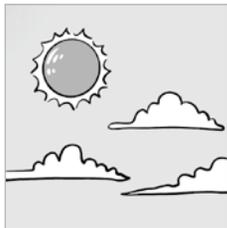

Once upon a time, there was a lonely elephant in the forest. He met a monkey and asked him, ' (1) _____ you _____ (want) to be my friend?' 'No. You are too big and (2) _____ (not / know) how to swing on trees,' replied the monkey. Then, the elephant (3) _____ (come) across a rabbit, a frog and a fox, but they all said he was too big to be their friend.

The next day, the elephant saw many animals ^{*} (4) _____ (run) away in fear. A tiger (5) _____ (attack) them at that time! The elephant wanted (6) _____ (save) them. He yelled at the tiger, 'If you (7) _____ (hurt) my friends, I (8) _____ (not / let) you go!' The elephant kicked him. The tiger was hurt and ran away.

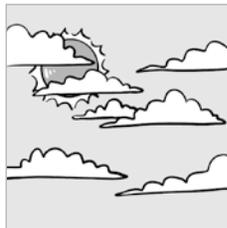

After that, the elephant said to the animals, 'Don't be afraid! I ^{*} (9) _____ (scare) the tiger away!' The animals thanked the elephant for (10) _____ (save) them. They also said to him, 'We want to be your friend!'

D Doris is playing a matching game. Look at the pictures. Fill in the blanks with the given words. (10 marks @2 marks)

leave drop win find disappear fight appear

(1) _____

(2) _____

lose reach

(3) _____

(4) _____

(5) _____