

Target Strategy

Extracting Specific Information

Listen to the recording and pay attention to the question words.

• what • where • who

Example

Rita: What is this animal?

Daniel: This is a chicken.

We use 'this is' or 'they are' to talk about what things are.

Rita: Where is the chicken?

Daniel: It is near the cage.

We talk about where things are with prepositions.

Which picture shows the chicken?

A.

B.

C.

Warm-up

Rita and Daniel are looking at a picture. Listen carefully and fill in the table.

Who?	Where?	Colour of the clothes?
Miss Chan	1	orange
2	near the slide	3
Polly	4	purple

Sandy and her dad are looking at a leaflet about a new zoo. Listen carefully and complete the missing information.

Apply the Strategy

Listen for the question words to get the information.

Wild Animals Zoo

Welcome to Wild Animals Zoo! You can see many cute animals here!

Bird Wonderland

There are 1 _____ birds in Bird Wonderland.

Come and hear the birds sing!

Big Cats Park

There are ten 2 _____ in Big Cats Park. You can see many of them 3 _____.

Monkey Land

There are 4 _____ monkeys in Monkey Land. There are some monkey babies too! You can see them on the trees.

Part 2

Text Type: Conversation

Sandy, her mum and her dad are in the new zoo. Listen carefully and choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

1 How many elephants are there?

- A. five
- B. seven
- C. nine

Apply the Strategy

Listen for the question words to get the information.

2 Where are the giraffes?

- A. next to the elephants
- B. next to the trees
- C. next to the cage

3 Which picture shows a hippo?

A.

B.

C.

Tip
What colour is the hippo?
Where is it?

4 The zebras are eating _____.

A.

B.

C.