Chapter 1 A deadly strike

Tod and Maria are zoologists. They like study all about dangerous snakes. They have traveled to South America, wet lands, deserts, India and Amazon rainforest, those places have many dangerous snake. They have been to many dangerous places, but their last station of the trip to Africa is the most dangerous. Tod and Maria have found many deadly snake for example, anaconda and southern rattle snakes.

Tod and Maria were in Africa now, this was their last journey. This story is about Tod and Maria in Africa. In Africa Tod and Maria saw a lot of deadly snakes example black mamba, puff adder and the green vine snake. It's three months later but there are no signs of Tod and Maria. Other zoologists' wonder why Tod and Maria still don't come back, so other zoologists go to Africa to find Tod and Maria, but how hard they find, they still could not find Tod and Maria. So they ask some African people. One African people said: " on that day I saw the two people looking for snake." But the real story is on that day

Maria and Tod are searching for snakes. Suddenly they saw an Africa spitting cobra, and then they try to catch the Africa spitting cobra. The Africa spitting cobra tries to escape. So it goes to a cave, Tod and Maria take out the torch and follow the snake to go into the cave, Tod and Maria go deeper and deeper into the cave, the deeper they went the darker it is, Tod and Maria don't know this cave was dangerous. So they have entered the Africa spitting cobra's trap. Tod didn't know the Africa spitting cobra was one step near Tod because it's so dark so Tod can't see the Africa spitting cobra. After Tod take one more step he was struck by the Africa spiting cobra, Tod tried to escape but when he take one more step he was dead. After Maria saw Tod is dead. She tried to escape but the Africa spitting cobra is too fast to Maria is also struck by the Africa spitting cobra she was dead too.

Other zoologists learn from Tod and Maria they have to be careful when they see an Africa spitting cobra.

Chapter 2 Alligator Attack

Freddy and Amy are Tod and Maria's friends, Tod and Maria love snakes, but Freddy and Amy love crocodiles and waterfalls, and they are also zoologist. Freddy and Amy have been to many waterfalls, for example Angel falls in Venezuela, Niagara Falls in Canada - America border, Rhine falls in Europe, Yosemite falls in north America and Dettifoss falls in Iceland. They also know about crocodiles for example saltwater croc, Nile crocodile and dwarf crocodile.

The most excited adventure is in Victoria Falls in Zambia in Africa. The Victoria Falls is the largest waterfall in the world, because the entire width is 1.7 kilometers and over 108 meter vertical. The river connected to Victoria Falls is called Zambezi River. On that day, Freddy and Amy went to Victoria Falls; they row a boat to go there. When they arrived, they saw a lake, but Freddy and Amy didn't know at the edge of the lake is a waterfall, and the waterfall's name is Victoria Falls, that's the waterfall that Freddy and Amy want to look for. When they arrived to the edge of the lake, it was too late to escape, so they drop to Victoria Falls and down they went. After arrived to the bottom of Victoria Falls, Freddy and Amy were safe. But they still have to go rafting across the river. After rafting they have been to a river, the river is full with crocodiles. Some crocodiles are eating, some crocodiles are swimming and some crocodiles are resting under the sun. Freddy and Amy are amazing. But they didn't know an enormous crocodile is following them. Later Freddy and Amy felt something strange, so they looked at the back of the boat, and then they saw an enormous crocodile was coming after them. So Freddy and Amy row the boat faster and faster, but the crocodile was catching up, so they found something in their rucksack, because they know that crocodile bite everything in their way. So

Freddy and Amy bring out a torch, then they throw the torch into the river, the crocodile is distracted buy the torch. Freddy and Amy row the boat quickly to escape. At last, Freddy and Amy are safe, and they row the boat across the river. Afterward, they saw a village, Freddy and Amy ask the people in the village how to go to town, the people in the village said "just walk by this path,, then you will go back to town." Freddy and Amy followed what the people in the village said. Finally, they arrived to town and they saw an airport, then they bought two tickets to get on the airplane and they went to home. When they arrived home, they show other zoologist the pictures they have taken.

Freddy and Amy are very happy because they can overcome the difficulties. And they will explore more of waterfalls and crocodiles.
