

2 Modal verb: should

Date: _____

Grammar Station

We use 'should / should not' to give advice or to talk about what we think is right or wrong to do.

 We do not change the verb after 'should / should not'.

You	should	speak	softly.
She	should not		loudly.

Like other modal verbs (i.e. can), we do not add '-s' to 'should' after 'he / she / it'.

A To be good children, what should we do and not do? Circle the correct answers.

1. We (should / should not) go to bed late.
